Dear Supplier,

As a valued engine supply chain supplier, we invite you to attend and participate in an upcoming AESQ Supplier Forum scheduled for Thursday 26 October 2023 in Munich, Germany, hosted by MTU Aero Engines.

AESQ Supplier Forums are an opportunity for the aerospace engine supply chain to learn what the AESQ is doing; to provide feedback to AESQ on its efforts; and to provide suppliers with the opportunity to talk directly with their customers (AESQ members). Attendees will learn about the SAE AS13100™ AESQ Quality Management System Requirements for Aero Engine Design and Production Organizations Standard and related deployment activities.

Aero Engine Manufacturers are required to flow down regulatory and customer requirements to their supply chains. Because of the product complexity and links to safety, they tend to include more stringent requirements than the rest of the aircraft systems and components. AS13100 was created to replace customer specific quality requirements – leading to simplification and harmonization between engine manufacturer supply chains.

This event is presented by the AESQ Strategy Group and includes presentations by SENIOR LEADERSHIP from AESQ member companies responsible for Supplier Selection and Management.

Location

MTU Aero Engines
Dachauer Strasse 665

About AESQ
The Aerospace Engine Supplier Quality (AESQ) Consortium was established to develop, specify, maintain, promote, and deploy a common set of quality standards specific to the Global Aerospace Engine supply chain. This is intended to reduce customer specifics through a focused set of standards that integrate industry best practice and aerospace engine unique elements.

Questions
Any other questions, please contact Becky Lemon at +1 724-772-4083 or Rebecca.lemon@sae.org or Amanda Myers at +1 724-772-4225 or Amanda.myers@sae.org.

AESQ looks forward to your participation!
